

2007 Governor's Environmental Stewardship Awards

Each year, the Department of Environment and Conservation recognizes many voluntary efforts of individuals, organizations, local governments, and companies that enhance our environment and natural resources. The award winners represent the very best achievements in Tennessee.

For more information on the Governor's Environmental Stewardship Awards, including recipients from previous years, please refer to www.tdec.net/awards.

Nomination forms for the 2008 Awards, which will recognize significant environmental accomplishments during 2007, will be available January 2008.

The Department of Environment and Conservation would like to acknowledge and thank the following partners who made the 2007 Governor's Environmental Stewardship Awards Ceremony possible.

- Montgomery Bell State Park
- Ellington Agriculture Center
- Andy Shivas, Mary Lou Durham and Andy Smith
